INFORMED CONSENT TO PARTICIPATE

Participating in hockey involves the risk of being injured. Although Grandview Recreational Hockey Association prohibits intentional body contact, falls, collisions and other incidents may occur and cause injury. Parents must understand these risks when applying to register their child.

Parents are solely responsible for determining the physical fitness of their child as it relates to his or her ability to participate safely in the sport of hockey.

It is the responsibility of parents to ensure that the child properly wears the required protective hockey equipment. If your child has an existing medical condition, please discuss with the respective coach and league executives any safety concerns you may have prior to and during the season.

Players registered with G.R.H.A. may not be registered in another league.

After reading these clauses, please sign the consent for your child to participate.

I _____ (parent/guardian) _____ (Phone #)

(please print in block letters)

agree that my child will not play for any other hockey league while registered with G.R.H.A.

I have read, understood, and do consent to the clauses above.
